

A high-angle photograph of a motorhome interior. A grey L-shaped sofa is the central feature, with a white rectangular table in front of it. The table holds a bowl of fruit, two glasses of orange juice, and a magazine. The sofa is adorned with several pillows, including white and yellow patterned ones. Large windows on either side of the sofa offer a view of a wooded landscape. The interior is finished with light wood paneling and a patterned carpet. A kitchen area with a sink and wooden cabinets is visible in the bottom right corner.
